https://staging.homesinjuneau.com

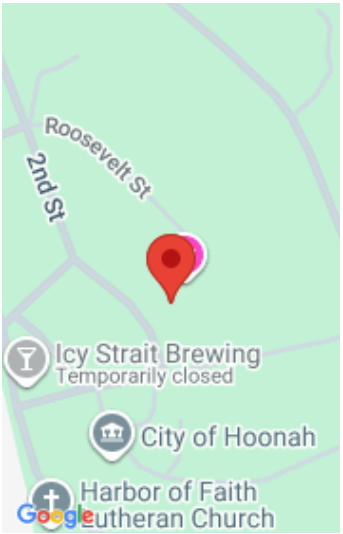

Wake up to mountain views and filtered glimpses of the water on 2nd Street in Hoonah. Inside, four bedrooms give you real flexibility â room for family, guests, a home office, or all three â across 960 square feet set over separate floors. A new metal roof was installed in 2022. Downstairs, a partially finished basement adds another 112 square feet and space to make your own, whether that becomes storage, a workshop, or a project for down the road. Set in the heart of Hoonah, you're part of one of Southeast Alaska's most welcoming communities, surrounded by the fishing, wildlife, and wild coastline that make this corner of the state special.
